RENT GUIDELINES

Pursuant to its mandate to promulgate rent adjustments for hotel units subject to the Rent Stabilization Law of 1969, as amended, (§26-510(e) of the N.Y.C. Administrative Code) the Rent Guidelines Board hereby adopts the following rent adjustments:

The allowable level of rent adjustment over the lawful rent actually charged and paid on September 30, 1991 for residential Class A (apartment) hotels, lodging houses, rooming houses (Class B buildings containing less than 30 units) and Class B hotels shall be 3.5%.

The allowable level of rent adjustment over the lawful rent actually charged and paid on September 30, 1991 for single room occupancy buildings shall be 2%.

Except that, in the case of Class B Hotels and single room occupancy buildings, if:

- A. 1) The affected building contains 20 or more dwelling units; and
2) ten percent or more of the units have been deliberately withheld from the rental market for a period exceeding thirty days; or
- B. Twenty percent or more of the dwelling units in the building are not registered with the State Division of Housing and Community Renewal pursuant to part 2528 of the Rent Stabilization Code; then, the allowable level of rent adjustment over the lawful rent actually charged and paid on September 30, 1991 shall be 0%.

NEW TENANCIES

No "vacancy allowance" is permitted under this order. Therefore, the rents charged for tenancies commencing on or after October 1, 1991 and on or before September 30, 1992 may not exceed the levels over rentals charged on September 30, 1991 permitted under the applicable rent adjustment provided above.

ADDITIONAL CHARGES

It is expressly understood that the rents collectible under the terms of this Order are intended to compensate in full for all services provided without extra charge on the statutory date for the particular hotel dwelling unit or at the commencement of the tenancy if subsequent thereto. No additional charges may be made to a tenant for such services, however such charges may be called or identified.
